All Saints

The Collect

O Almighty God,

who hast knit together thine elect in one communion and fellowship in the mystical body of thy Son

Christ our Lord:

Grant us grace so to follow thy blessed Saints

in all virtuous and godly living, that we may come to those unspeakable joys

which thou hast prepared for those who unfeignedly love thee;

through the same thy Son Jesus

Christ our Lord.

Amen.

The page is a full-page illumination. It features a central text block surrounded by various religious figures and decorative elements. At the top left, a man with a halo (likely a saint or apostle) is shown in profile, looking right. At the top right, a winged figure (an angel) is shown in profile, looking left with hands clasped in prayer. On the left side, there are two more figures: a man with a halo looking down, and a man with a halo looking right. On the right side, there is a woman with a halo holding a palm frond, and a small winged figure at the bottom right. The background is a light blue wash. The text is in a dark blue or black ink. The word "Blessed" is highlighted in gold. The page is decorated with gold leaf, including a large cross at the top center, a smaller cross on the right, and various floral and foliate motifs in gold and blue. The overall style is reminiscent of medieval manuscript illumination.

The Gospel

St. Matthew 5:1–12 (The Beatitudes)

Jesus seeing the multitudes, went up into a mountain: and when he was set, his disciples came unto him: and he opened his mouth, and taught them, saying, Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted. Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth. Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled. Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy. Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God. Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God. Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are ye when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake. Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.
